Stewardship Reflections...

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory." (MARK 13:26)

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" How will you respond? The good news – it's never too late to start living a grateful and generous lifestyle.

"Entonces verán al Hijo del hombre que vendrá en las nubes con gran poder y gloria." (MARCOS 13:26)

Todos tendremos que colocarnos frente a Dios y nuestra vida será recreada como si fuese una película. Cuando eso suceda y Dios nos pregunte a cada uno de nosotros, "¿Qué has hecho con los dones que te he dado?" ¿Cómo responderás? La buena noticia es que nunca es demasiado tarde para comenzar a vivir un estilo de vida generoso y agradecido.

May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

World Day of the Poor

"Christian hope embraces the certainty that our prayer reaches God's presence; not just any prayer but rather the prayer of the poor!"

POPE FRANCIS

SUNDAY, November 17, 2024, is the World Day of the Poor, a day established by Pope Francis in 2017 for Catholics to "reflect on how poverty is at the very heart of the Gospel." The theme for 2024 is "The prayer of the poor rises up to God" (Sirach 21:5).

"The poor hold a privileged place in God's heart," Pope Francis said in his message for the day. "God knows the sufferings of his children because he is an attentive and caring father. As a father, he takes care of those who are most in need: the poor, the marginalized, the suffering, and the forgotten. No one is excluded from his heart, for in his eyes, we are all poor and needy. We are all beggars because without God, we would be nothing."

The pope stressed that God will never abandon us and will never leave us without a response to our prayers.

"He does not forget you nor could he ever do so. We all have had the experience of prayers that seem to remain unanswered. Sometimes, we ask to be freed from a misery that makes us suffer and humiliates us, and God seems not to hear our cry. However, God's silence does not mean he is inattentive to our sufferings; rather, it contains a word that must be received with trust, surrendering ourselves to him and to his will," Pope Francis said.

Why Pope Francis established the day in 2017

AFTER THE YEAR OF MERCY, the pope said he wanted to set aside a day so that, throughout the world, Christian communities could become even greater signs of Christ's charity for those in need. We are called, Pope Francis wrote in his first World Day of the Poor message, "to draw near to the poor, to encounter them, to meet their gaze, to embrace them, and to let them feel the warmth of love that breaks through their solitude. Their outstretched hand is also an invitation to step out of our certainties and comforts, and to acknowledge the value of poverty in itself."

The pope said that for Christ's disciples, "poverty is, above all, a call to follow Jesus in his own poverty," and he asked Catholics to take as their example Saint Francis of Assisi, who kept his gaze fixed on Christ, allowing him to see and serve the poor.

Make a difference in our community....

Here are some local ways to help the needy!

Summit Warm Hearts

Summit Warm Hearts is a program of the Summit Interfaith Council that offers daily respite Monday through Saturday as well as overnight hospitality to those in our local community in need. Through the program, Summit's unhoused neighbors receive warm meals, access to showers, necessities and coordination with social workers. These services are made possible by partnerships with GRACE, Bridges, SHIP, and Atlantic Health.

In addition to host volunteers, SWH is always accepting donations of hygiene supplies, winter hats/gloves hand-warmers, meals (via web sign-up), and Monetary donations.

For more information visit summitbeacon.org/swh or contact swh@summitbeacon.org.

Loaves and Fishes

Loaves & Fishes is a food pantry with a long-standing outreach here at our parish to help the needy in our local community.

We stock non-perishable food items for weekly distribution to approximately 60 local families. We rely on donations to keep our shelves filled. (Non perishables may be dropped off to the parish office front porch).

In addition to the weekly distribution, this month, Loaves and Fishes will hold its Annual Thanksgiving Food Drive! Check out the details and volunteer opportunities featured in this bulletin, and stay tuned for the Christmas Food Drive in December!

Contact Karen Imbach for more information kareni@stteresaavila.org or visit st-teresa.org/ministries

The Mercy House

The Mercy House is a ministry of the Archdiocese of Newark's Respect Life Office, serving Essex, Hudson, Union counties. Mercy House serves as a resource and referral center for families offering a weekly food pantry, clothing, housewares, and baby items. How can you help? Get a group/ministry together and host a drive (food, toiletries, etc) or volunteer as an individual or group!

For donation inquiries/more information visit rcan.org/mercy-house or contact Annette Miller, Associate Director at 201-687-8139 / annette.miller@rcan.org.

Additionally, it reminds everyone to continue to develop prevention strategies and to bring healing, and justice for our survivors and their families (USCCB 11/2024)

Anyone with knowledge of an act of sexual misconduct to inform us so that we may take appropriate action to protect others and to provide support to survivors of sexual abuse. The Apocalypse

This Week's Readings at Mass

- Daniel 12:1-3 - Daniel's conclusion to the apocalypse
- Hebrews 10:11-14, 18 - Christ's eternal sacrifice
- Mark 13:24-32 - The Second Coming

Just before we get to Advent, we always hear “apocalyptic” readings about the end of the world. The first reading today from the book of Daniel and the Gospel fit into this category, as does the Book of Revelation.

Apocalyptic writing is a particular type of literature that was popular in Jewish and Christian circles from about 200 B.C. to 200 A.D. Such literature originated in times of persecution and crisis when Jews or Christians were severely threatened. It offered readers the assurance that God would ultimately overcome Satan despite the horrors of the present time. (The Left Behind series of books and movies is a modern-day equivalent to such ancient writings.)

Apocalyptic literature is known for its extravagant symbolism (“the stars will be falling from the sky”), supernatural visions (“They will see the ‘Son of Man coming in the clouds’”), natural disasters (earthquakes, famine, fire) and symbolic numbers (seven, 12, 666), none of which are meant to be taken literally. Scholars agree that the point of these types of readings was to encourage followers to stand firm in their faith despite threats to their lives, and to look forward to Christ's return in glory. It's encouragement we can all use with the seemingly unending onslaught of “little apocalypses” in the news this year.

Questions of the Week

- 1 Jesus' language in the Gospel reading today is very different from most of his other teachings and sayings. What your main takeaway?
- 2 Given the above explanation of apocalyptic writing, do you find it comforting and strengthening or off-putting? Why?
