God Bless all Fathers on this Father's Day!

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad

Stewardship Reflections...

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." (JOHN 16:13)

It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear God's response.

"Pero cuando Él venga, el Espíritu de verdad, los guiará a toda la verdad..." (Juan 16:13)

Se ha dicho que el mejor regalo que podemos darte a alguien es enseñarle a rezar. Si usted no habla, y lo que es más importante, no escucha a Dios cada día, ¿de qué manera va a saber lo que Dios lo está llamando a hacer? Así como usted habla con su familia y amigos cada día, acostúmbrese a hablar con Dios diariamente. Desarrolle una rutina de oración diaria. Mantenga sus oraciones simples y sinceras. Es mejor hacerlo en silencio, de manera que pueda escuchar la respuesta de Dios.

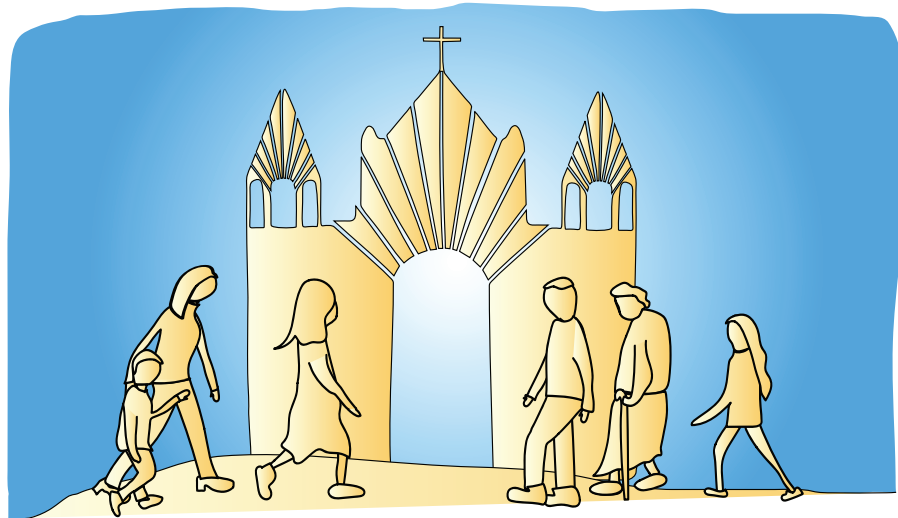

May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends:

YOU KNOW WELL THAT ST TERESA OF AVILA IS MORE THAN JUST A COLLECTION OF BUILDINGS—it is a community, a family, a home where we gather to worship, to support one another, and to grow in our love for God. In these times, as in times past, we are reminded that the Church is not built on bricks and mortar alone, but on the faith, generosity, and commitment of its people.

As Saint Paul tells us in the second reading today from Romans 5:5, Hope does not disappoint. We stand firm in the hope that God provides, but we also recognize that this hope calls us, all of us, to action. Our parish thrives because of you — your prayers, your service, your presence, and your generous support.

Now, more than ever, before summer vacations disperse us, we need everyone to do their part. Whether it is through volunteering, financial contributions, or simply inviting others to join us in worship and sacraments, your consistent and generous involvement makes a difference. Every small effort comes together to form the great work of St Teresa's here in our community.

Our 2024-2025 fiscal year ends in two weeks. Please take a moment to review the "racing sheet" contained in this bulletin. Then kindly take a moment to ask yourself whether you have done your part helping us. In these days when the Archdiocese is taking a closer look and review of all parishes and ministries, it is more important than ever for us to meet and surpass our financial goals. And you know well that while money is not everything, it very clearly and tangibly demonstrates the sustainability of a parish.

On this Trinity Sunday, let us hold fast to our faith, knowing that God blesses the hands that give and the hearts that serve.

Thank you for all that you do, and for all that you will continue to do as we build a stronger, more vibrant parish together where all people can find comfort and strength from our loving God.

With gratitude and blessings,

Fr Bob

Who Is Lady Wisdom?

This Week's Readings at Mass

- Proverbs 8:22-31 - The discourse of wisdom
- Romans 5:1-5 - Faith, hope, and love
- John 16:12-15 - Coming of the paraclete

In the Christian tradition, we don't often reflect on passages in scripture that personify a female element of the divine. Today's reading from the Book of Proverbs does just that. This passage would have been well known to Jesus and his fellow Jews, as well as to the New Testament writers. Those authors sometimes drew direct and other times subtle connections between the central figure in the Proverbs reading, Lady Wisdom, with Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

The voice in the passage is Wisdom, often referred to as Lady Wisdom by scripture scholars. In the Old Testament, this Wisdom figure is always personified as a woman, just as references to God's spirit (which God breathed into the first humans) are feminine. Lady Wisdom seems to originate within God, not as a creation of God. "The Lord possessed me ... I was poured forth ... I was brought forth." Such a description is similar to the phrase in our creed that describes Jesus as "begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father." Lady Wisdom appears to be a co-worker with God in creation, a master craftsman (craftswoman!) reflecting herself in all of creation.

So who exactly is Lady Wisdom? Is she equivalent to Jesus? John suggests this parallel in the first verses of his Gospel. At times Paul equates the two as well. "Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God" (1 Cor 1:24). Or is Lady Wisdom the Holy Spirit because references to God's spirit in the Hebrew Bible are feminine? There is no right or wrong answer. The concept of the Trinity is a mystery far beyond what our

Sheepish Question:
What does the eternal presence of Father, Son and Holy Spirit mean to my relationship with God?

limited minds can imagine. What is important is that we don't fall into the trap of identifying God as a male or female, but as possessing attributes of both.

Ultimately, the concept of the Trinity remains a mystery for our limited human brains. How is God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit? How is God the creator, the redeemer, and the sanctifier? Where does Lady Wisdom enter all of this? Scripture writers, like us, falter at trying to describe the indescribable, which is why we have so many different and sometimes conflicting images and metaphors for God

Questions of the Week

- 1 If you think of God as the Trinity, which "person" do you most identify with and why: Father/Creator, Son, or Holy Spirit?
- 2 Does imagining God with a feminine aspect change how you think of God? Why or why not?

A six part series on the Pope's "Job description"

Part Five

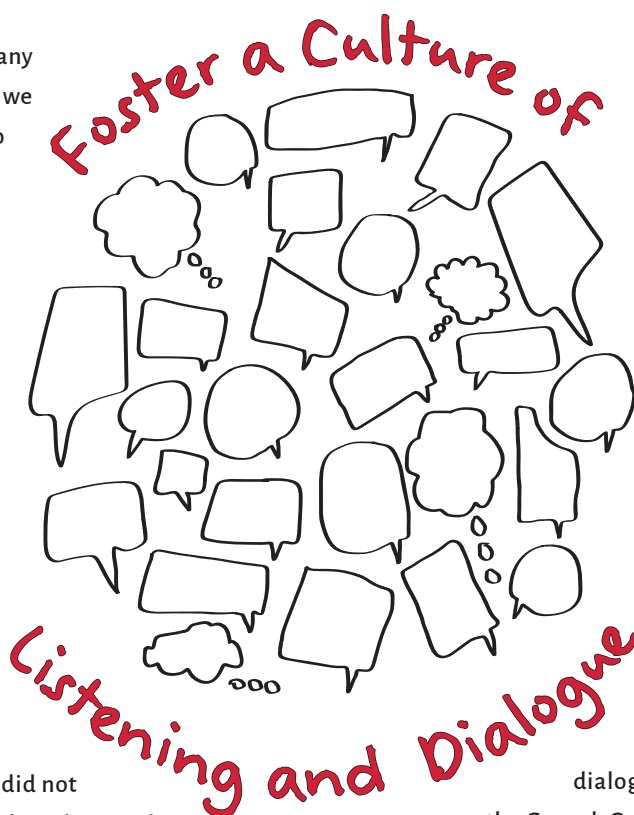

Fr Thiago Ibiapina

IN TODAY'S WORLD, where so many voices speak but few truly listen, we Christians are invited to return to the heart of the Gospel: the heart of Jesus. A heart that listens. A heart that welcomes. A heart that walks with others. At this moment in the life of the Church, we are called to build a culture rooted in listening and dialogue, not just as a method, but as a way of living our faith.

Synodality reminds us that the Church is not a path trodden by a few, but a journey undertaken together. The early Christian community, faced with disagreements and new challenges, did not divide or dominate; instead, they gathered, prayed, and listened (Acts 15). This is the synodal spirit: the Spirit of Christ guiding us when we sit down to listen to one another with humility and speak with love. The Church needs everyone, laity, clergy, and religious, to walk side by side, honoring each other's gifts and vocations. This unity in diversity reflects the very life of the Trinity.

But walking together is not just about meetings or documents. It is a change of heart. A true synodal Church is one that stops to listen deeply. It welcomes different voices without fear, which creates spaces of trust and healing. This is also pastoral care, not distant or rushed, but personal and compassionate. To care for the Church is to care for people, especially those who are hurting, isolated, or forgotten. The heart of Jesus always moved with compassion, and ours must do the same. Every parish, every ministry, should be a place where someone's tears are seen, their stories heard, and their dignity honored.

Living this way also means embracing transparency and accountability. Jesus did not hide his wounds. Neither should the Church. We are called to lead with integrity, to be trustworthy in small and great matters. This means being open in our decisions, clear in our communication, and humble in our leadership. It means choosing people who are faithful, wise, and willing to serve others, not themselves. A Church that is honest about its struggles becomes more credible in its mission.

Fostering a culture of listening and dialogue does not mean watering down the Gospel. On the contrary, it is to let the Gospel reach the hearts of people today. Pope Francis often spoke of the "culture of encounter," a way of meeting others that reflects God's desire to draw near. This is not a slogan. It is a spiritual path. It is the Church becoming more like Jesus, who never stayed distant but walked with others, even when it was difficult, even when it led to the cross.

Dialogue, listening, and compassion are not just tools for evangelization. They are signs of who we are. The Church does not merely use dialogue; it is called to be dialogue: God reaching out to humanity, and humanity responding in love. May our communities become places where the heart of Jesus is felt, where listening leads to healing, and dialogue leads to peace.

Fr Thiago Rodrigues Ibiapina completed his M Div & STB from St Mary Seminary, Baltimore and was ordained to the priesthood on June 18, 2022. He holds a Licentia in Philosophy and a Bachelor in Philosophy both completed in Brazil; as well as his MA from Clark University. He is currently an Associate Pastor in Massachusetts at Saint John Guardian of Our Lady in Clinton and Immaculate Conception Church in Lancaster, as well as a Philosophy Professor and Theology Adjunct Professor. Fr Thiago offers online and in person seminars, parish missions and retreats for the laity and consecrated life.
