Stewardship Reflections...

"...Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (JOHN 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome.
Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you. Make God your first choice and not your last resort.

"... No se turben sus corazones ni tengan miedo." (Juan 14:27)

Nuestra comprensión humana es limitada y no es suficiente para entender el inmenso poder de Dios. En lugar de confiar en Dios, a menudo pensamos que podemos controlarlo todo. ¿Quiere hacer reír a Dios? Cuénteles sus planes.

La próxima vez que lo invada la preocupación, la ansiedad o el temor, dele gracias a Dios por lo que Él le ha dado
y confíe que Dios tiene un plan mejor para usted. Haga de Dios su primera escogencia y no su último recurso.

May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

A six part series on the Pope's "Job Description"

Part Two

EVERY CHRISTIAN, BY VIRTUE OF THEIR BAPTISM, IS CALLED TO BE MORE THAN A BELIEVER IN PRIVATE.

We are called to be visible witnesses to the Kingdom of God, a kingdom of justice, peace, and love. In a world plagued by division, violence, and indifference, the Gospel calls us to be agents of transformation. As Jesus proclaimed in the synagogue at Nazareth, He was sent "to bring good news to the poor... to set the oppressed free" (Luke 4:18-19). That same mission is now entrusted to us.

This is not a rhetorical or superficial calling. In our time, marked by inequality, ideological conflict, and growing individualism, the values of the Gospel provide a radical alternative. As Gaudium et Spes (n. 78) from the Second Vatican Council reminds us, "Peace is not merely the absence of war; nor is it simply the result of a balance of opposing forces... it is rightly and properly called the work of justice" (cf. Is 32:17).

True peace is not passive or abstract. It is not the result of silence or neutrality. It demands courageous dialogue, the defense of human dignity, and the pursuit of justice for the poor, the oppressed, and the marginalized. Christians are called to challenge structures of sin and become instruments of mercy and healing. Peace is not a diplomatic ideal, it is a Gospel imperative.

To live the Gospel is also to imitate Christ's humility. "Have among yourselves the same attitude that is also yours in Christ Jesus," writes St. Paul (Philippians 2:5). Jesus, though divine, emptied himself to become one of us. Christian leadership, whether in the Church, the family, or society, must reflect this humility. It is not about control or recognition, but about service and love.

As the Body of Christ, we are not isolated individuals. We are members of one another.

The Church must be a place of welcome, unity, and a community where every person has a place and a voice. We must break down the walls of division and foster a culture of encounter. True evangelization builds bridges, not barriers.

Today, the world is in desperate need of Christian witnesses who embody the Beatitudes, those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, who are merciful, who work for peace. These are not optional ideals, but the very heart of discipleship. As Jesus reminds us, "Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40).

Let us recommit ourselves to this mission. Let us promote the values of the Kingdom of God: justice, peace, humility, and community. In doing so, we help bring Christ's presence into a world that so urgently needs it.

Have you taken the DMI parishioner Survey yet?

As a part of the Archdiocesan We are His Witnesses initiative, we are called on a journey to know, love, and serve Christ as a parish community. Together we must embrace Christ's vision for missionary discipleship so our parish can thrive and be a place for others to grow together in faith.

The very first step in this process involves assessing our greatest strengths and opportunities. The Disciple Maker Index is an important survey tool that invites you to reflect on your discipleship journey here at Saint Teresa of Avila.

Your input helps strengthen
our parish.

Results help leadership prepare for the future.

A report of the findings
will be shared with Saint Teresa of Avila.

This link will lead you to an online survey

thankapriest.com A project of the INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR CULTURE

"Our organization, The International Institute for Culture, was founded in 1989 in response to Pope John Paul II's call for the re-evangelization of culture. For decades, we have supported the education and formation of seminarians, priests, and the laity with our programs.

There is a crisis in the Church due to a lack of young men choosing to respond to God's call to the priesthood. We believe that the cultural negativity surrounding the priesthood is a significant factor in this crisis. We are actively countering the negative perceptions by sharing the reality—that priests are courageous, holy, and selfless individuals devoted to serving God and their communities."

The Goal:

This website is dedicated to collecting and sharing real-life stories of priests whose lives exemplify the virtues that St Thomas Aquinas described as worthy of honor—serving as a witness to the goodness and truth that inspire and uplift those around them.

Share a story!

Your stories highlight the courage, compassion, and commitment of those who have answered God's call. They help counter negative perceptions of the priesthood and inspire others to see the beauty of this special vocation.

Support:

Your donation will help spread these positive stories far and wide, highlighting the courage and compassion of priests who serve selflessly.

A BLESSED ENCOUNTER AT THE VATICAN

A reflection by the DeGasperis Family

During a Thanksgiving visit to Rome in 2016, one of our families had an incredible opportunity to attend a Mass celebrated by Pope Francis at the Vatican. Siena D. [ENCOUNTER class of 2024] and her family arrived early, but even then found themselves near the back of the crowd. By chance, it began to rain, and because of their position, they were among the first to be ushered into the Paul VI Audience Hall. This unexpected turn of events allowed them to receive excellent seats for the Mass. Even though Siena was only six months old at the time, little did she know she was going to experience one of the greatest moments of her lifetime.

After the liturgy, Pope Francis walked down the aisle to exit the Audience Hall. Siena and her family were in the crowd to catch a glimpse of the Holy Father, and some people in the crowd encouraged her parents to bring Siena closer to the center as Pope Francis walked by. Hoping for a blessing, Siena was carried forward—and, to their joy, Pope Francis stopped, smiled, gently touched Siena's cheek and offered her a blessing.

Siena was nearly six months old at the time; she is now almost nine. That moment—so full of grace and emotion—remains one of the most treasured ones in their lives. It felt like a miracle—a moment that left her family with a deepened sense of faith.

For the past 8½ years, a photograph of that day has sat on Siena's dresser. Until recently, she believed that that moment had been her baptism. When she was able to understand the significance of that blessing and learn about the special person she got to meet, she was overjoyed. When Siena learned of Pope Francis' passing last week, she felt sad but also really special as she thought back to the memory of receiving a blessing from him when she was a baby. "I've heard the story so many times, and even though I don't remember it, I know it was an amazing moment. It helps me feel closer to God, and reminds me to try to live with love, kindness, and faith, just like Pope Francis did.", said Siena when asked about what that day means to her.

This experience continues to remind Siena and her family that God's grace often touches our lives in the most unexpected ways—and that even the briefest encounter with holiness can leave a lasting mark on our hearts.

An Oak Knoll education
guides students to discover that purpose and make a
